

Wavell County Junior School

Home / School / Pupil Agreement

Together we will:-

- “ Support the child and help achieve a complete education within a secure and caring environment.
- “ Encourage children to keep the school's Code of Conduct.
- “ Implement any special requirements which may be needed to enable a child to succeed happily in their learning.

The family will try to:-

- “ Make sure our child is punctual, attends school regularly and notify school by 9.30 a.m on each day of absence.
- “ Support the school policies on behaviour, uniform, jewellery and medicines and advise the school of any health or relevant family problems.
- “ Attend open evenings and other arranged meetings to discuss our child's progress.
- “ Share reading books, support the learning of multiplication tables and spellings and generally encourage our child to do their homework.
- “ Ensure that the school has all necessary contacts and telephone numbers so that effective individual communication can take place.
